declares in their advertisements, that the famous famous known as the Jaeger underwear, can be purchased in this city, at their store only.—A house on 14th st. advertises that"Genuine Jaeger Underwear can be purchased from 1c. to 10c. per pair, at prices ranging from 25c. per pair, to 40c. per pair, less than it can be obtained elsewhere."This makes the question of veracity interesting to the public, since it brings it home to their health and their pockets.Both these statements cannot be true.
There is a falsehood somewhere.

Where?

The Jaeger Co. back their statement with the following extract from a certificate of Dr. Jaeger, the originator of the Jaeger goods:"I have assigned to Dr. Jaeger's Sanitary Woolen System Company, 14th St., New York, the sole right in the United States and Territories, of the use of my name, 'Jaeger's', 'patents', 'trade-marks', &c., and the sole right to sell in the United States and Territories all articles of clothing, bedding, do. in connection with my Sanitary Woolen System, and stamped with the trade-mark 'JAEGERS' (Circle)." PAUL J. JAEGER.The only thing we have seen offered in support of the counter-statement, is a kind of voucher for the "reputation" of that house on 14th st. by a dealer whose goods have been sold by that house, on 14th st. for "pure wool," and "genuine Jaeger underwear," which goods, upon analysis, proved to be about 40 per cent. cotton.The public can "compare" the "facts" and judge for themselves.DR. JAEGER'S SANITARY WOOLEN

FOR FANCY WORK
NOW AND HERE.
BECAUSE:There has been a rather sudden and very large increase in the cost of silk.The ribbon-makers have been compelled to advance prices accordingly. In no instance has this advance been less than 20 per cent. as compared with the prices that prevailed two months ago. In many cases it is higher, and in ALL it is sure to go even higher than at present.We were fortunate enough to get control of several thousand pieces just before the cost advanced. We will sell all silk, satin and gros grain ribbons at these prices, though we cannot guarantee that present prices will hold good more than a
